INVESTMENT EXECUTIVES X 2

Takura Capital Partners (“Takura”) is a Zimbabwean-based investment holding company targeting growing companies, mainly in Zimbabwe and, to a lesser extent, in the SADC region. Takura’s focus sectors include agro-processing, FMCG, health and pharmaceuticals, mining services and ICT.

An exciting opportunity, based in Harare, Zimbabwe, has arisen for two suitably qualified and experienced individuals to assume the roles of Investment Executives within Takura.

The successful candidate for each position must be a driven team player, who is also dynamic, assertive and results oriented.

The candidates must also:

- have strong leadership qualities;
- have strong communication skills, in particular the ability to communicate effectively with all levels of staff, investee company promoters and other stakeholders, both verbally and in writing; and
- be flexible and adaptable to the fast-paced business environment currently prevailing in the country.

JOB RESPONSIBILITIES

The Investment Executives will be responsible for executing the investment strategy of Takura, and will report directly to the Managing Partner.

Responsibilities include:

- Deal origination;
- Investment analysis and appraisal;
- Conducting due diligences and producing necessary reports;
- Negotiating and structuring deals, both at entry and exit;
- Preparing Investment Committee papers and presenting same to the Investment Committee;
- Drawing up investment agreements, including investment offer letters, share sale and purchase agreements, share subscription agreements, loan agreements and other relevant deal specific documents; and
- Monitoring investments via Board seats.

QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE

The first Investment Executive must have:

- A good first degree in either financial or technical/science fields. Although not essential, an additional qualification such as MBA, CFA or similar would be an advantage; and
- Extensive operational experience at Executive level (C-suite level), with a demonstrable successful track record of at least 5 years.

The second Investment Executive must have:

- A good first degree in either financial or technical/science fields. Although not essential, an additional qualification such as MBA, CFA or similar would be an advantage; and
- Extensive experience in executing investments, preferably in Africa, covering the full deal cycle, from origination to exit, with a demonstrable successful track record of at least 5 years.

PACKAGE

An attractive market-based and performance-related package is on offer, and will be discussed with short listed candidates.

APPLYING

Interested individuals must submit their applications, along with their CVs, to stephanie@takuracapital.com.
